

Ann Tierney

Ann Tierney is the Vice-Provost and Dean of Student Affairs of Queen's University. She leads Queen's Division of Student Affairs, which provides a comprehensive range of services for undergraduate and graduate students from the time they apply through to graduation.

Ann has established a range of new programs including Summer Orientation and a Common Reading program for incoming students, increased recreational space on campus and introduced new mental health education tools to help faculty and staff identify and respond to students in distress.