

Anne Bartlett

Anne Bartlett is currently the Coordinator of Pathways to Academic Success (PAS), Webster Academic Services; University of Prince Edward Island. Anne has received degrees from UPEI, University of Maine and Mount Saint Vincent University and has worked in residence life on two campuses: UPEI and Dalhousie University.

In her current position as PAS Coordinator, Anne works with both undergraduate and graduate students coordinating several academic support programs and providing individual academic counseling to the UPEI student community. Anne has also enjoyed her involvement with the Atlantic Association of College and University Student Services (AACUSS), and currently sits as AACUSS President Elect for 2012-13.