

Anne Comfort

Anne Comfort is the Coordinator of the Meighen Centre for Learning Disabilities at Mount Allison University. She holds a M.Ed. in Exceptionalities from UNB and two undergrad degrees from MTA. She is currently the Atlantic Region Representative for the Canadian Association of Disabilities Service Providers in Postsecondary Education. She has presented both regionally and internationally on the subject of Assistive Technology for Learning Disabilities and Transition to Post Secondary.