

Heidi MacDonald

Heidi MacDonald received her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Prince Edward Island and then went on to complete her Masters in Education at the University of New Brunswick. She has worked as a personal counsellor and academic advisor in the Department of Student Services at UPEI for the past six years. Prior to this she worked in the Counselling Center at St. Francis Xavier University. Previous work experience includes case management and employment counselling.