

Kathleen Kielly

Kathleen Kielly joined the University of Prince Edward Island team as Registrar in 2008. A graduate of the University of Alberta, Kathleen has been supporting students and educators for over 30 years serving in a number of capacities with Memorial University of Newfoundland, Alberta Education, and the University of Northern British Columbia. To obtain the best student-centered outcome, Kathleen liaises closely with stakeholders on the campus, working within academic regulations, and through academic records to proactively address challenges that arise for students in the context of their academic studies.
