

ELIZABETH FOUNTAIN

Elizabeth Fountain was born in Halifax, NS, and graduated from Mount Saint Vincent University in 1979.

Formerly employed by the law firm Franklin, Mitton, Fountain & Thompson (1979 - 1986) and by The Great Eastern Corporation (1983 - 1992). Currently works part time for Champlain Properties Limited and October Mountain Holdings Limited.

Activities include and have included those countless volunteer commitments associated with raising children as well as the boards of St. Margaret Sailing Club, St. Margaret's Bay Skating Club and Laing House Association.

Together with Fred Fountain established the Alex Fountain Memorial Lecture at University of King's College (2011), The Stay Connected Mental Health Project with the QEII Health Sciences Centre Foundation (2013) and The Fountain School of Performing Arts at Dalhousie University (2013).

Awarded the degree Doctor of Canon Law, honoris causa, from the University of King's College in 2012.

Enjoys reading, music, traveling, hiking, and cooking as well as (but not necessarily very accomplished at!) skating, skiing, golf and fly fishing.

Married to Fred Fountain. Two children - Alex (1988 - 2009) and Katharine.

FRED S. FOUNTAIN, C.M., LL.B.

Fred Fountain was born in Truro, Nova Scotia. He holds an A.B. in French from Dartmouth College and an LL.B. (1974) from Dalhousie University. He received an Honorary Doctor of Law degree from Dalhousie in 2000.

Mr. Fountain is a founding partner of the law firm formerly Franklin, Mitton, Fountain and Thompson. He is currently Counsel to the law firm Burke Thompson. He has been a member of the Nova Scotia Barristers Society since 1975. He was a Judge and Chairman of Regional Assessment Appeal Court from 1980 to 1989, and has been President and Chief Executive Officer of The Great Eastern Corporation Limited since 1985.

Former Chairman of the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, and formerly a Trustee of the National Gallery of Canada. He was Chair of the Working Miracles Capital Campaign for the QEII hospital which raised over $44 million. Other volunteer commitments have included Board of Governors at Dalhousie University serving on various committees; Board of Directors of the Scotia Festival of Music; World Wildlife Fund Canada (Atlantic Advisory Council). His charitable support has created new facilities and programs, including Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, King's-Edgehill School, Dalhousie University, Mount Saint Vincent University, King's College, Symphony Nova Scotia, QEII Hospital Foundation, IWK Hospital, among others. He was awarded Philanthropist of the Year in 1999.

Mr. Fountain currently serves as Chancellor of Dalhousie University and was named a Member of the Order of Canada in 2008. Recently he was named Humanitarian of the Year by the Canadian Red Cross in Nova Scotia. He was also awarded both the Queen Elizabeth II Golden Jubilee Medal and the Diamond Jubilee Medal.

He is married to Elizabeth Fountain and has a daughter Katharine. His son Alex died in 2009 at the age of 20.

Fred enjoys golf, fishing and boating.