<sup>2</sup> Beginning in 2006, New Transfer Students (Full-time and Part-time) are defined as students having previous post-secondary education, and these students can be registered in any year of the program and are not limited to first year.
